

Explanation of Textbook Types:

- Required Textbooks and other course materials indicated by the faculty as necessary to successfully complete the course.
- Choose One Some items are available in more than one form (hardback vs. paperback, for example). You only need to order one of any set of items marked Choose One. All items marked Choose One are functionally equivalent to each other and contain the same main content. Ancillary content may vary.
- Recommended Textbooks and other course materials indicated by the faculty to be useful and usually related to the required materials (such as answer keys, study guides and solutions manuals). STO Recommended are store recommended products designed to aid students in successful course completion.
- Optional Textbooks and other course materials indicated by the faculty as supplemental material that is optional to purchase.
